Itinerary

Days 1-3 Travel to Bangkok. ✈️ Arrive, transfer 🚗 to the hotel and start exploring!

Days 4-5 Encounter Bangkok's incredible monuments and Buddha statues, followed by a cruise through the lively canals in a traditional longtail boat. Join an expert foodie guide to sample local gastronomy in Chinatown.

Travel to Ayutthaya to see the fascinating ruins via bike. As you pedal through this ancient city, gaze at magnificent palaces and Buddhist monasteries. Rest and rejuvenate at a local restaurant.

Days 6-7 Travel to Kanchanaburi and unravel poignant World War II history at "The Bridge Over the River Kwai" and the Thailand-Burma Railway Centre.

Visit the stunning Erawan Falls for a refreshing splash and swim. If you wish, explore the surrounding environs and search for animals. Free time offers a chance to book optional activities.

Days 8-9 Fly to Chiang Mai. Travel to a local village to visit with a Lanna family. Tour a family's herb and spice garden and learn to make a Thai herbal compress. After a short massage, sit down to a traditional kantoke-style dinner.

Rise early for an alms-giving ceremony. Watch as saffron-robed monks walk through town and gather alms from locals, a time-honored ritual. Explore Chiang Mai's Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, a golden Buddhist temple. Back at the hotel, try your hand at planting rice the traditional way and join a chef who demonstrates how to make a variety of local dishes. Cap off the day at the city's colorful night bazaar! You may find authentic gifts to bring home.

Days 10-11 A bamboo raft glides along the river, delivering you to a traditional village to visit with the Lahu tribe. Gain insight into their unique lifestyle while engaging with members of the community. Enjoy lunch at a nonprofit cafe, followed by free time.

Start your morning with a revitalizing yoga session. Fly back to Bangkok and enjoy a Chao Phraya River cruise on your final evening. Raise a toast to your adventure while taking in the sights along the river.

Day 12 After breakfast, transfer 🚗 to the airport for your return flight home! ✈️
