A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Meet the People.

Enjoy a Welcome Reception and Dinner at Casa Garcia Alvarado, a National Historical Building. Tour this elegant, private home and savor a meal with one of the owners.

Highlights of Lima. Begin at the Larco Museum to see its fine collection of pottery, jewelry and artifacts that spans more than 5,000 years of pre-Columbian Peruvian history. Next, admire the stately colonial-era buildings that line Plaza Mayor in Lima's historic center. Stop afterward for a tasty lunch at Pardos Chicken, a popular Peruvian restaurant. Continue to see the splendid interior of the Cathedral of Lima and visit the beautiful Monastery of Santo Domingo, a religious complex with relics of important Peruvian saints. Later, tour Casa Aliaga, a delightful gem built in 1535 and still occupied by descendants of the Aliaga family. See its grand rooms richly adorned in wood and the serene courtyard.

Sacred Valley. Explore Ollantaytambo, an Inca fortress notable for its immense, hillside terraces. Then, take in the circular Moray Terraces created by the Inca in the 15th century as an experimental farm. Later, visit a mountain village to learn about ancient weaving methods and life in this challenging environment. Conclude with a wonderful lunch at a family estate that boasts lovely grounds, gorgeous views and artwork.

Machu Picchu. Situated at an elevation of 7,972 feet in a misty cloud forest high in the Andes, Machu Picchu is considered the most important archaeological site in the Americas. With an expert guide, meander through the grassy plazas, stone temples and palaces of these stunning Inca ruins.

Cusco, Ancient Inca Capital. This sacred city, perched 11,152 feet above sea level, was the religious and administrative center of the Inca Empire. Enjoy guided visits to the Cathedral, noted for its colonial art, and the Santo Domingo Church built on the foundations of the Koricancha Temple, the Incas' main religious building dedicated to the worship of the sun.

ACTIVE TRAVEL

Excursions on this program require:

- walking distances of up to 3-5 miles
- walking on cobblestones, unpaved paths and/or uneven and slippery surfaces
- getting on/off motor coaches, boats and/or trains
- climbing in/out of excursion boats
- walking up (sometimes steep) hills in ports where docks are not available and at sites in the Sacred Valley
- tolerating varying climatic conditions, including high altitude and humidity

Sacsayhuaman. Marvel at these massive Inca stone ruins precisely constructed without any mortar. This ancient fortress was the site of a fierce battle between the Spanish and Incas in 1536.

Cruising the Amazon. Set out aboard skiff boats, anticipating the day's astounding and unexpected wildlife encounters. Pacaya Samiria National Reserve, the region where the ship cruises, is one of Peru's largest wildlife preserves with rich biodiversity spread across more than five million acres. Skim along rivers and creeks, peeking into lagoons and other waterways where an abundance of wildlife hides in the deep rain forest. Marvel at gray and pink dolphins swimming nearby. With your expert guide, hike in to the rain forest to explore the fantastic flora and fauna. You'll likely see brilliant parrots, hummingbirds, hawks and "laughing" falcons. Sharp eyes may spot red howler monkeys, iguanas and sloths.

Manatee Rescue Center. Meet these gentle creatures and learn about efforts to protect them at a conservation center.
