Day 3 | Aix-en-Provence | Cassis & its Calanques

Aix-en-Provence & Cézanne's Studio. Set out to explore this captivating capital of Provence, your home for the week. On a guided tour, stroll beneath a canopy of plane trees along the famed Cours Mirabeau, considered one of the most beautiful boulevards in Europe. Pass by the Cathedrale Saint-Sauveur d'Aix-en-Provence and Place de l'Hôtel de Ville. See the places Paul Cézanne frequented, such as Les Deux Garçons café, and where he found inspiration when he lived here. Then, find your muse during a visit to his atelier, imagining the artist at work.

Cassis & its Calanques. Next, drive to Cassis, a quaint, sun-drenched Provençal fishing village on the Mediterranean coast, to savor a fresh seafood lunch at a local restaurant. Continue on a boat cruise through the narrow inlets of the famous Calanques of Marseille to be awed by the unique geological formations of tall needle rocks rising from brilliant blue-green waters.

Day 4 | Avignon

Palais des Papes & Avignon. Revel in history with a guided visit to the massive, medieval Pope's Palace, an outstanding example of Gothic architecture that served as the papal seat during the 14th century. Walk through history as you learn about the palace's storied and turbulent past. Be humbled by original, faded, ancient frescoes and see inside grand chambers, once the Pope's private apartments.

Pont Du Gard. Continue to visit the remarkably preserved Pont du Gard, built by the Romans in 19 B.C. Contemplate the architectural scale, Roman engineering and construction mastery of this massive, three-tiered aqueduct.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Enjoy a scenic drive to the southern Rhône valley and the famed wine-making village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Visit a winery for a tour and lunch, and savor a tasting of the classic, full-bodied Rhône wines.

Free Time: Explore more of Arles’ artistic heritage during lunch and time at leisure.

Les Baux & St. Remy. Delight in visits to two quintessentially Provençal villages. Les Baux, perched atop towering limestone cliffs, offers breathtaking views, a tiny medieval village and ancient fortress. In romantic St. Remy’s, gaze at the lush, perfumed valleys that inspired more than 150 of Van Gogh’s paintings during one of his most artistically fruitful periods.

Return to Aix for a festive group dinner tonight.
