Dear Alumni and Friends,

Beta Theta Pi is pleased to offer members and their guests an unforgettable eight-night journey through Greece, exploring the rich cultural and historical treasures of Athens and seaside Kalamata.

Begin in Athens with a visit to the iconic Acropolis and Parthenon, then travel to Olympia, birthplace of the Olympic Games, and the ancient ruins of Mycenae. Discover lesser-known gems like the classical city of Messene and the Byzantine ruins of Mystras. In Kalamata, enjoy the region's vibrant coastal life, indulge in its famous olives and seafood, and take part in a festive evening of wine, music, and dancing.

Along the way, enjoy expert-led lectures on Greek history, indulge in Greek cuisine, and take advantage of plenty of opportunities to connect with fellow Betas in a small-group setting. This is more than a vacation—it's a once-in-a-lifetime journey through the heart of Greece and the bonds of brotherhood.

The trip includes deluxe accommodations, a generous meal plan with wine at dinner, and no single supplement for solo travelers.

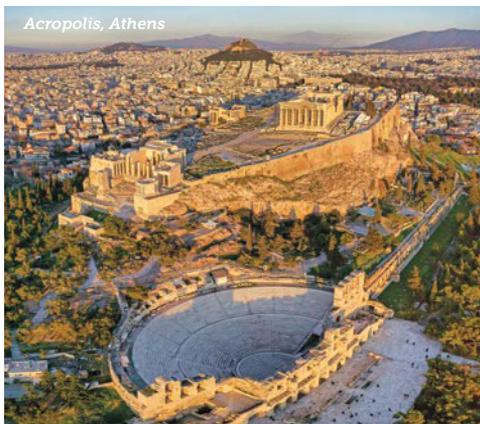

Sincerely,

Jonathan Brant, Miami '75
General Fraternity President

Mycenae & Greek Wine. Take a guided tour of the impressive ruins of Mycenae, one of the oldest archaeological sites on the Peloponnese. The Mycenaean civilization flourished during the second millennium B.C. and was home to Agamemnon, the king who conquered Troy, according to Greek mythology. Imagine this fortified city in all its glory as you walk under the imposing Lion's Gate. Then, sample fine Greek wines with lunch at a winery. (Active)

Day 5 | Kalamata | Messene

Over the next two centuries, Mystras evolved into the most important Byzantine city in the southern Peloponnese. Hear about its significance from your guide and admire the monasteries, chapels and churches adorned with frescoes. Finally, tour Sparta's Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, which details why the olive is prized by the Greeks. (Active)
