Manuel I and admire the artistry of the Monument to the Discoveries and Belém Tower, which celebrates the triumphs of Portugal's seafarers. Continue with a drive through the city's authentic Alfama neighborhood.

Vila Real. Discover the extravagant Mateus Palace, an 18th-century baroque palace. View the rooftop pinnacles, carved wooden ceilings and lavish halls before strolling through the gardens. Walk along the cobbled lanes of Vila Real and sample cristas de galo, a delectable local pastry.

Porto's Wine Road. Drive through the scenic Alto Douro Wine Region, known for its vineyards and bountiful olive and almond groves. Visit the town of São João da Pesqueira, nicknamed the "fishing ground," and stop at a quinta, a local winery, for a presentation and tasting of the sweet wine.

Lamego. Lamego is one of the country's prettiest towns and sits in the heart of the port-producing Douro Valley. Visit Nossa Senhora dos Remédios, a splendid baroque church overlooking the city.
