Dear Alumni and Friends,

Embark on an unforgettable, nine-night, small-group adventure in Chile! This South American jewel, more than 2,500 miles long but only roughly 110 miles wide, abounds with distinctive regions. Your first destination lies in central Chile, tucked in a valley between the Andes and the Pacific coastline. In Santiago, visit the capital’s lively streets, tantalizing cuisine and architectural gems. Then, journey farther south to the beautiful Lake District, where you’ll immerse yourself in the park’s allure. Approximately 130 species of mamals live within the park, including the puma, a rare relative of the lion, gray, and black fox, the endangered Pampas falcon, and the guanaco, the largest and most graceful camelid. Andean condors soar in the skies above, and Fiordland, which the locals call sewn,1 offers spirit-sustaining stands of the grassland are preserved by their large wings.

Torres del Paine National Park

This stunningly beautiful national park stretches across 695,000 acres in Chile's southern wilderness. Founded in 1959, its astonishing landscape encompasses turquoise lakes, grasslands propelled by their large wings. The guanaco, a close relative of the llama; gray and red foxes; the endangered Patagonian huemul deer; and the puma, the largest and most elusive. Andean condors swirl in the sky above, and grasslands are all inhabited by large populations of rheas and vicuñas.

Biosphere Reserve

- Founded in 1978, it is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- The park's unique ecosystem supports diverse wildlife and plant species.
- Approximately 2,500 species of mammals live within the park, including pumas, condors, and several species of foxes. The landscape is home to various bird species, including rheas and pumas, and vegetation varies from scrubland to forest.

A special tour of Lake District & Patagonia

- Visit to Patagonia near the continent's tip. Get a close-up look at massive glaciers during a 3-hour cruise, be dazzled by the wild grandeur of Torres del Paine National Park and a stunning port situated on the Strait of Magellan. Finally, catch up your adventure with one more day to enjoy Patagonia.

Torres del Paine National Park

This stunning national park stretches across 2,225 square miles in Chile’s southern Patagonia. Founded in 1959, its astonishing landscape encompasses turquoise lakes, glacial-rolled rocks, snow-capped mountains and sculptural icebergs. Its crowning jewels are the Cordillera del Paine mountain range and the aptly named Grey and Grindelwald glaciers. The Torres del Paine National Park is a true paradis for nature lovers and outdoor adventurers alike. Approximately 25 species of mammals live within the park, including the guanaco, a close relative of the llama; gray and red foxes; the endangered Patagonian huemul deer; and the puma, the largest and most elusive. Andean condors swirl in the park’s skies to protect you from fuel surcharge increases after ticket purchase.
