Continue to Plaza Mayor in Lima's historic center, lined with majestic, colonial-era buildings. After lunch on your own, see the splendid interior of the Cathedral of Lima and visit the beautiful Monastery of Santo Domingo, a religious complex with relics of important Peruvian saints. Next, tour Casa Aliaga, a delightful gem built in 1535 and still occupied by descendants of the Aliaga family. See its grand rooms richly adorned in wood and the serene courtyard.

Day 3 | Lima | Iquitos | Nauta | Cruising

Transfer to Lima's airport for your flight to Iquitos, the gateway to the Amazon, accessible only by plane or boat. Journey through Iquitos to Nauta on the Marañon River. Along the way, see the vibrant "terra firma" (non-flooded forest) and other aspects of daily jungle life. Once in Nauta, embark the Delfin III at a private port. Admire sweeping views from the observation deck as your naturalist guide reviews your upcoming activities and the wildlife and vegetation that you are likely to see.

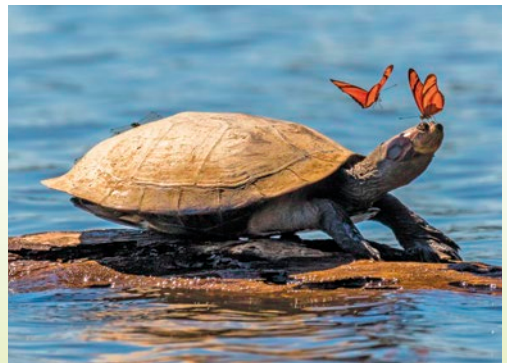

Day 4 | Cruising the Amazon Basin

Set out aboard skiff boats, anticipating the day's astounding and unexpected wildlife encounters. The region in which you are cruising, Pacaya Samiria National Reserve, is one of Peru's largest wildlife preserves, boasting more than five million acres of rich biodiversity. Skim along rivers, creeks and lagoons, where abundant wildlife, such as capybaras, toucans and macaws, hides in the deep rainforest. Marvel at grey and pink dolphins and perhaps even glimpse the endangered charapa turtle, spider monkey or giant river otter.

Day 5 | Cruising the Amazon Basin

Never does nature seem more bountiful than in the tropics, and rising early is always rewarding since wildlife is most active at daybreak. Hike with your expert guide to discover the fantastic flora and fauna. You'll likely see brilliant parrots, hummingbirds and "laughing" falcons. Sharp eyes may spot red howler monkeys, sloths, exotic spiders, butterflies and tarantulas.

Enrichment: Contemporary Peru.
