A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Paris Noir. Enjoy a viewing of the 2016 documentary, "Paris Noir: African Americans in the City of Light," followed by an engaging question and answer discussion with the filmmakers.

Welcome to Paris! Get to know the colorful neighborhood around your hotel and learn how to use the Métro subway.

Spirit of Black Paris. Venture out for an enriching overview of Black history in Paris, the city that welcomed Josephine Baker, Langston Hughes and other African American luminaries. Drive along the Champs-Élysées and stroll through the Latin Quarter, viewing favorite haunts of the expatriate community. See the Josephine Baker marker and memorials celebrating Alexandre Dumas' family that illustrate France's relationship with slavery and race.

Harlem in Paris. Explore Lower Montmartre on a guided tour to understand the influence of the Harlem Renaissance and jazz in Paris. Hear how the WWI "Harlem Hellfighters," first brought jazz to Paris, and how African American culture influenced European popular culture and arts. Pass nightclubs owned by legends Bricktop, Eugene Bullard and Josephine Baker.

Flavors of France. Delve into French gastronomy in Champ-de-Mars, at the foot of the Eiffel Tower, while tasting your way through the city's best artisan-made foods.

Musée du Quai Branly. Join an expert guide in the Musée du Quai Branly, one of Paris' premier cultural institutions, which features indigenous art and cultures of Africa, Asia, Oceania and the Americas.

Left Bank Pioneers. African-American expatriates, along with other communities of the African diaspora, flourished on the Left Bank. Enjoy a walking tour that focuses on the Panthéon and the Sorbonne. Learn about the explosion of Black consciousness and expression through the Négritude Movement, Harlem Renaissance writers, and African and Caribbean intellectuals. See where author Richard Wright lived.

Paris by Boat. Cruise the Seine River through the heart of Paris, viewing iconic landmarks, including the Louvre Museum, Île St. Louis and Notre-Dame Cathedral.
