A World of Discovery

Versailles. Tour extraordinary Versailles, which was France's political capital and seat of the royal court from 1682 to 1789. See the opulent rooms and the Hall of Mirrors, where the Treaty of Versailles was signed. Spend some free time exploring at your own pace.

Ancient Abbeys. Encounter the incredible ruins of the Abbey of Jumièges, one of medieval France's most powerful abbeys. The ruins of the current building are from the 11th century, but the original monastery was built 300 years earlier. Visit Abbey Saint-Wandrille, lavish with rococo-style buildings and Gothic decorations.

Rouen. Stroll through Rouen's historic center, witnessing the city's ornate Gothic churches and half-timbered houses. Visit the Notre-Dame de Rouen, Rouen's imposing and flamboyant cathedral.

Étretat. The grand white cliffs along Étretat's coastline are represented in many works of art by painter Claude Monet. Thrill to these views and unique spectacles during a gentle walk along a cliff-top path.

Historic Honfleur. Honfleur's vibrant center boasts an alluring setting that has inspired artists, writers and musicians. Visit the 17th-century Vieux Bassin, or old harbor, located where the Seine River meets the English Channel. Imagine the explorers, such as Samuel de Champlain, who launched their voyages from here. See the wooden Church of Sainte-Catherine, crafted by 15th-century shipbuilders.

Monet, His Life in Giverny. Delve into Claude Monet's life at his home in Giverny. Admire the tranquil Japanese garden and pond filled with floating lilies, environments that inspired many of his paintings. Notice the green footbridge captured in his art and visit the studio where he created his dazzling "Water Lilies" series. Inside the house, view iconic rooms, including the blue kitchen and yellow dining room.

Normandy and D-Day. Begin at Pointe du Hoc, where U.S. Rangers courageously scaled 100-foot cliffs to destroy German artillery emplacements that posed a threat to troops landing on Omaha and Utah beaches. Then, walk along Omaha Beach, and contemplate the extraordinary bravery of the Allied landing forces, who valiantly advanced under devastating fire across the heavily fortified shoreline. Your guide shares details about this treacherous mission. Continue to the U.S. Military Cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer and the premier Caen Memorial Museum with its insightful exhibits.

Gems of Paris. Savor the sights of Paris during a Seine River cruise. Glide by famous landmarks and float beneath graceful bridges, including Pont-Neuf. Walk through the Île de la Cité, see the spectacular Notre-Dame and take an in-depth look at the Latin Quarter on the Left Bank.
