JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

From vintage cars and culture-soaked streets to infectious music and welcoming smiles, Cuba is a scintillating feast for the senses! Stay for seven nights at a first-class boutique hotel in the heart of Havana. With your small group, limited to 12 travelers, you'll make authentic connections to the Cuban community and gain insight into the country's complex history — steeped in culture, struggle and enduring spirit.

Our thoughtfully designed People-to-People program delivers a full schedule of activities that provide meaningful interactions between our travelers and the Cuban people. You'll meet and engage with small business owners, community leaders, artists, dancers, musicians and philanthropists who will share their personal stories and perspectives on the island's ever-changing landscape. Plus, expert-led excursions offer a genuine immersion in the daily lives of hardworking Cubans. From historic Old Havana to culture-rich Matanzas and the rural countryside, you'll uncover Cuba's heart and soul!

Our expert guides and network of locals are ready to share their professional insights and passion for their country with you. Space is limited, so we encourage you to make your reservations today!

This exclusive program, developed by AHI Travel, is operated in accordance with a People-to-People general license established by the Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Sincerely,

Marguerite Jones

Historic Old Havana

Day 1 | Miami, Florida | Havana, Cuba

Depart Miami for Havana. Arrive, transfer and check in to the Claxon Hotel Boutique. Tonight, gather for a Welcome Dinner at a privately owned and operated local restaurant. Meet, mingle and support local entrepreneurs on your first night in Cuba!

Day 2 | Havana

Enrichment: Havana's Architecture.

Enigmatic Old Havana. Enjoy your first look at La Habana Vieja, Old Havana, and its four main squares: Plaza de Armas, Plaza de San Francisco, Plaza de la Catedral and Plaza Vieja. These vibrant plazas teem with local life, from men playing dominoes and children playing soccer to colorful flea markets. Continue to Dador, an independently owned clothing store founded by Cuban women. Learn about their experiences and the challenges they overcame in starting and owning a business in Cuba. Savor Cuban cuisine at lunch in Old Havana.

Hotel Nacional de Cuba. Stop at this historic hotel, built in 1930, to appreciate its Art Deco and Spanish-colonial architecture and tour the property before returning to the hotel.

Enrichment: The Cuban Economy.

Day 3 | Havana

Cuban Activism. Norma Guillard, a Cuban social psychologist and adjunct lecturer at the University of Havana, shares stories about her work in literacy and feminism. View "Maestra," a documentary about the female volunteers who taught over 700,000 Cubans to read and write during the Cuban Literacy Campaign, followed by a discussion and Q&A with Guillard.

Havana's National Museum of Fine Arts.

Join Wilfredo Benítez of the Ludwig Foundation on a visit to Cuba's important cultural institution, housing an impressive collection of Cuban and European art, to gain insight into the museum's Cuban collection, which spans colonial-era, 19th-century, modern and revolutionary art.

Enjoy lunch together at a local restaurant.

Vintage Convertible. Feel the wind in your hair as you take a ride in a classic convertible along Havana's 4.3-mile Malecón sea drive. Peek beneath the hood and chat with your friendly driver about maintaining these vintage cars.

Enrichment: The Cuban Health Care System

Day 4 | Havana

Enrichment: Empowering Cuban Women.

Jewish Culture & Cuban Dance. Visit the Ashkenazi Community Center to learn about Cuba's Jewish culture. Then, stop at Malpaso, a contemporary dance studio to meet and

Founders and owners of Dador

La Finca Vigía, Ernest Hemingway's home & museum

spend time with the dancers, gaining insight into their passion, training and dedication.

La Finca Vigía. Head to the fishing village of Cojimar to visit Ernest Hemingway's modest home from 1939 to 1960, now a museum, where he wrote "The Old Man and the Sea."

Ludwig Foundation. Later, gather on the terrace of this nonprofit institution that protects and promotes Cuban artists and culture, to engage in intellectual exchanges with local artists to gain insight into their passion, desire and commitment to pursue artistic ventures.

Savor dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 5 | Havana | Matanzas

Matanzas Panoramic Tour. This morning, cross Cuba's longest, highest bridge en route to Matanzas, admiring the breathtaking views of the canyon and lush Yumuri valley below. Discover the cultural riches of this timeworn city as you pass by Spanish-colonial buildings, charming plazas, the neoclassical-style Sauto Theater and the elegant French quarter. Then, enjoy a lively choir performance, interact with the choir members and have lunch nearby.

Matanzas Walking Tour. Take a guided stroll around the city center and La Libertad Park, a green space dotted with Cuban monuments and statues. Visit the Museo Farmacéutico, a preserved French-style pharmacy, founded in 1882. Marvel at the treasures within, including its collection of French porcelain jars and North American stained-glass medicine bottles.

Back in Havana, share insights of your day over dinner together at a local restaurant.

Day 6 | Havana

Enrichment: Race & the Cuban Revolution.

Cuban Cultural Walking Tour. Begin at an agromercado, a bustling food and produce street market, to witness daily life in Cuba!

El Callejón de Hamel. Continue to the artsy, eclectic El Callejón de Hamel, Cuba's oldest community art project. The paint-splattered alleyway, now central to Afro-Cuban culture, brims with rumba drummers and dancers, vibrant murals, sculptures and recycled art.

Inside an Art Studio. Next, take a tour of Casa Fuster, the studio of Picasso-inspired Cuban painter and sculptor José Fuster. View his vibrant mosaics and hear about his work
