Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Tucked between the magnificent Vosges mountains and the Black Forest is the enchanting Alsace region, known for its picturesque German heritage, vineyards, wine and gracious communities. Here, enriching experiences show you the true essence of the region and invite you to explore this awe-inspiring part of Europe.

We'll stay for seven nights in historic Colmar, an intimate town painted with scores of impressionist landscapes. Spend sunny days exploring colorful villages, visiting Alsatian hamlets dressed with rustic fountains and exquisite floral displays. Cross neighboring borders to visit Basel and Freiburg, and admire the architectural gems and photogenic “Petite France” of Strasbourg. The sumptuous gastronomy and unique traditions of Alsace~Fairytale France are不可错过的 highlights of this spectacular tour. You’ll enjoy comfortable accommodations, ample meals, engaging insights from travel experts.
