Discovery

AHI Connects: Lunch with a Local. Enjoy an intimate conversation with a Bolzano local during a lunch of regional cuisine.

Trento. Discover the history and architecture of Trento. Visit Castello del Buonconsiglio with its colorful frescoes, courtyards and imposing round tower. See the sights of the old town, including the Piazza del Duomo, the Duomo di Trento and the Neptune Fountain sculpted by Francesco Antonio Giongo in 1768.

Brenta Dolomites and Adamello-Brenta Nature Park. Travel through a smorgasbord of jagged pinnacles, lush forests, meadows and unique villages. Begin in Lago di Molveno, one of Italy's most beautiful lakes, and visit Madonna di Campiglio, a quintessential Italian ski resort village. Enjoy a gondola ride up Monte Spinale where we'll settle in for a delicious lunch accompanied by unbeatable panoramic vistas of the Brenta Dolomites.

Romantic Verona. Journey by rail from Trento to enchanting Verona, home to Juliet's House, a museum dedicated to the female protagonist of Shakespeare's legendary love story. Pass through the lively Piazza Bra and Piazza delle Erbe, surrounded by cheerful outdoor cafés and medieval buildings. Step inside the Roman Arena, once showcase to gladiator games and circus acts. Built in the first century, the arena was constructed from pink and white stone from nearby Valpolicella.

The Heart of South Tyrol: Bolzano and the Dolomites. Visit Ortisei nestled in the picturesque Val Gardena. Soar to the Alpe di Siusi, Europe's largest plateau, via a cable car and admire the incredible views. Continue to Bolzano, capital of the province of South Tyrol and a crossroads of Italian and Germanic cultures. Enjoy a group lunch and walking tour that introduces Bolzano's highlights. See the Gothic cathedral with its elegant spire and the 13th-century Dominican church. Browse stalls overflowing with fresh fruits and baked goods at Piazza delle Erbe. At Piazza Walther, view the statue of renowned poet Walther von der Vogelweide, and visit the South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology, home to Ötzi the Iceman, a 5,300-year-old corpse found in 1991.

Lake Garda. Pass through Riva del Garda on your way to charming Limone sul Garda. Luxuriate in the lake's resplendent scenery waterfront promenades, sandy beaches and alpine foothills, images that have inspired literary legends through the centuries. Cruise on the lake to Malcesine, where jumbled stone buildings open to tiny squares, and visit the Castello Scaligero. The castle's tower offers unforgettable 360-degree views of the lake.
