Dear alumni and friends,

Bask in southern Spain's historic gems and captivating beauty on this seven-night journey to Andalucía. We'll make our home for the week in a first-class, modern parador in Antequera, surrounded by serene countryside scenery. From there, we'll embark on daily excursions that illuminate Andalucía's unique heritage, a fascinating intermingling of cultures and religions.

You'll be filled with awe at the beautiful legacy of the Moors; the courtyards and fountains of the Alhambra in Granada; the iconic red-and-white arches of La Mezquita in Córdoba; and the elegant Alcázar in Sevilla. Other memorable moments await you: a stroll through Sevilla's colorful historic quarter, the breathtaking view over El Tajo Gorge in Ronda and an impassioned flamenco performance.

To help you fully appreciate Andalucía's history and culture during your journey, our travel planners have meticulously selected knowledgeable local guides and included insightful lectures. You'll also enjoy the fellowship of traveling in a small group while still having ample opportunities to strike off on your own. Best of all, your very capable, professional Travel Director will take care of the details so that you can focus on savoring Andalucía's delights. Join us in southern Spain by reserving today.

Sincerely,

Gabrielle Korn
Executive Director

Day 2 | Málaga, Spain | Antequera

Upon arrival, transfer ➡ to Antequera and check in to the Parador de Antequera. Tonight, get to know your fellow travelers at a Welcome Reception and Dinner at the parador.

Day 3 | Antequera

Ancient Antequera. The prehistoric Menga and Viera dolmens were built by farmers in the valley between 3500 and 3000 B.C. On a guided tour of these megalithic monuments, ponder the labor and engineering skill involved in constructing the immense stone burial chambers. Then, embark on a guided walk through Antequera. Start at the Alcazaba, the 14th-century Moorish fortress that once guarded the city, where you'll enjoy sweeping views. Continue into the old town to admire its landmarks and stop for lunch after your walk.

Free Time: The afternoon is yours to plan.

Enrichment: Andalucía & the Moorish Influence. A local expert examines the lasting impact of eight centuries of Muslim rule.

Day 4 | Granada

The Palace City of Alhambra. Travel today to the Alhambra, an exquisite Moorish palace complex and fortress located in Granada. This iconic structure was built in the 13th and 14th centuries by the kings of the Nasrid dynasty who sought to create their own paradise on earth. Admire intricately filigreed courtyards and halls in the Palacios Nazaríes, walk through the fortress and stroll in the gardens of Generalife. Relax later over lunch at the Parador de Granada within the Alhambra.

Day 5 | Sevilla

Sevilla City Tour. Journey to the cultural heart of southern Spain on a panoramic/walking tour. See the centuries-old bullring and the Moorish watchtower near the river. Enjoy a stop at the remarkable Plaza de España to see its canal and tiled alcoves representing the provinces of Spain. Next, tour the grand Real Alcázar, a medieval Moorish palace still in use today as a royal residence, and the stunning Cathedral of Sevilla, the world's largest Gothic church. These structures stand in the heart of Sevilla as proud representation of the Spanish Golden Age.

Plaza de Toros, Ronda

Palace city of Alhambra, Granada

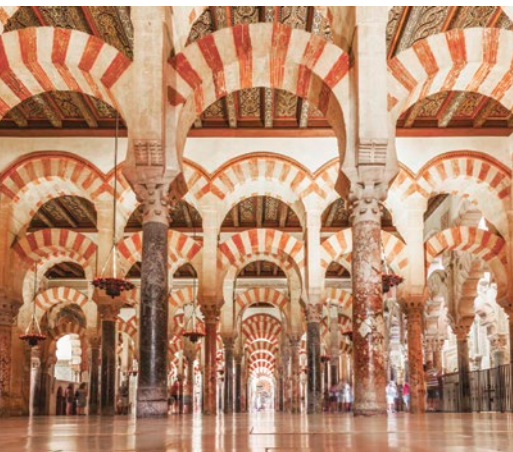

Finish with a walk through the scenic Barrio de Santa Cruz and savor lunch on your own. Gather for dinner tonight at the parador.

Day 6 | Ronda

Ronda Discovery. Spectacularly situated on the edge of El Tajo Gorge high above the open countryside, Ronda is a showstopper and the largest of Andalucía's pueblos blancos, or white towns. Begin your guided walk at the bullring, Plaza de Toros, established in 1785. Stand in the arena and delve into the dramatic world of bullfighting at its museum. Later, soak up marvelous views of Ronda from the terrace of Casa de San Juan Bosco. Cap off your Ronda visit with a tour of Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor, a beautiful, artistic basilica.

 AHI Connects | Bodega Lunch & Tasting. Sample fine wines and enjoy lunch at a local winery. Continue for a tour of their cellars.

La Mezquita, Córdoba

Day 7 | Córdoba

La Mezquita & Jewish Quarter Tour. Visit La Mezquita, Córdoba's grand mosque-cathedral, and admire the finest examples of Moorish architecture in Spain. While the mosque was built in the eighth century, the cathedral was erected within the complex in the 16th century after Spanish forces recaptured Córdoba in 1236. The mixture of Islamic and Christian decorative elements dazzles the eye, including the prayer hall of striped arches, the golden mihrab, the altar screen and the mahogany choir stalls. After, see the Roman bridge over the Guadalquivir River, and stroll along the atmospheric Jewish Quarter's winding streets past whitewashed houses.

Free Time: Select a nice spot for lunch on your own in Córdoba.

Flamenco Performance. This evening, relish dinner at a local restaurant in Antequera while delighting in a special flamenco performance.

Vineyard near Ronda

You'll be awed by the emotion and precision of Spain's famous art form!

Day 8 | Antequera

Enrichment: Contemporary Spain. Gain insights about issues impacting the nation.

Free Time: Spend your last day at leisure in Antequera. Another option is to take the complimentary, round-trip shuttle to vibrant Málaga and make your own plans. You can also choose to join today's Elective Activity.

Elective | El Torcal & Olive Oil Experience. Marvel at the otherworldly limestone formations of El Torcal de Antequera Nature Park on a drive. Take a coffee break there and, if you'd like, walk to see the rocks up close. Head next to a family-owned olive oil mill for a tour and a delicious brunch featuring their fresh oils.
