A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Music in Doolin.

Doolin is synonymous with music due to the many musicians who live in the area. Be welcomed into a musician's home for a session of songs and a glass of wine.

Ennis Walking Tour. Stroll through the winding streets of charming Ennis and learn about its legends and folklore.

Irish Music & Dance. Tap your feet to the lively beat as a traditional céilí band and local dancers entertain you.

Cliffs of Moher & The Burren. Take in these marvelous natural wonders that sit on the Wild Atlantic Way, the sensational western coastline. Marvel at the Cliffs of Moher, rising 700 feet above the Atlantic, and then see Poul nabrone, a portal tomb from 2500–2000 B.C. After a pub lunch, head to the Burren, one of the world's most unique landscapes, which features a rocky plateau of karstic limestone formations and diverse flora. Join expert Tony Kirby for an exclusive guided walk rich in geological, archaeological and botanical insights.

Aran Island of Inishmore. Ferry across Galway Bay to this beautiful island, where Gaelic is the first language. As you explore, your local guide shares stories about island life. See Dun Aengus, the most famous of the Aran Islands' Bronze Age stone forts.

Killarney National Park. Ride through breathtaking scenery on a horse-drawn carriage known as a jaunting car as your driver shares tales of the area. Next, board a boat for a pleasant trip across the lovely Lakes of Killarney.

Ring of Kerry. Soak up the spectacular Ring of Kerry and admire unique vistas at every turn. Watch border collies maneuver a flock of sheep and meet the local shepherd. After lunch, drive through scenic villages with views of the Lakes of Killarney.

Whiskey Tasting. Delight in a whiskey tasting paired with appetizers while learning about Irish whiskey production.

Dingle Peninsula. Relish picturesque vistas and tour the Blasket Centre, which honors the former residents of the remote Blasket Islands. Enjoy some free time in Dingle.

Dublin Walking Tour. There's much to see in this dynamic capital city filled with history and charm. Discover the sites of bustling Dublin on a guided walk. Visit Trinity College and see the famous, hand-illuminated, ninth-century Book of Kells.

Dublin Food Tour. Dublin is a fantastic destination for food lovers! Savor traditional Irish flavors and taste local finger foods on a culinary walking tour.
