A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Bodega Lunch & Tasting. Delight in delectable food and wine at a countryside bodega.

Ancient Antequera. Visit the prehistoric Menga and Viera dolmens and imagine the vast labor and skill it took to construct these enormous stone burial chambers. Then, take a guided walk to uncover Antequera's roots as a cultural crossroads. Begin at the Alcazaba, a 14th-century Moorish fortress, and relish views of the city and countryside.

The Palace City of Alhambra. Discover this Moorish walled city of palaces and towers built by the Nasrid sultans in the 13th and 14th centuries. Marvel at the filigreed carvings and mosaic details within the courtyards and arcaded walkways. In the Palacios Nazaries, see the Hall of the Ambassadors, the Court of the Myrtles, the Court of the Lions and other chambers. Visit the Alcazaba and the elegant gardens of Generalife, then relax over lunch at the Parador de Granada inside the Alhambra.

Sevilla. On a panoramic tour, see the Moorish watchtower and the centuries-old bullring. Stop to visit the Plaza de España and see its pretty bridges and tiled alcoves. Stroll through the scenic Murillo Gardens and Barrio de Santa Cruz. Next, tour the Real Alcázar, a beautiful, medieval Moorish palace still used today as a royal residence. Later, visit the impressive Cathedral of Sevilla, the world's largest Gothic church.

Ronda. Spectacularly situated on the edge of El Tajo Gorge, Ronda is the largest of the pueblos blancos, or white towns. Stand in the arena of the Plaza de Toros, first opened in 1785, and delve into the dramatic world of bullfighting at its museum. Next, take in wonderful views of Ronda from Casa de San Juan Bosco. Conclude with a tour of lovely Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor.

Córdoba. Explore La Mezquita, the city's stunning mosque-cathedral, on a guided tour. Built in the eighth century, the great mosque was converted into a Catholic church after the Reconquista in 1236, and a Renaissance cathedral was added in the 16th century. The combination of Christian and Islamic decorative elements is remarkable. Then, enjoy a guided walk in the Jewish Quarter and some free time.

Málaga. Choose to take a complimentary, round-trip shuttle to Málaga on your free day and select your own sites to see.
