Dear University of Michigan Alumni Travelers,

Travel is an enriching part of our lives, connecting us to new worlds, new friends, and each other. At the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, we've spent more than 60 years planning, perfecting, and executing extraordinary, exclusive trips for U-M travelers — trips you'd expect from, and for, the Leaders and Best. These adventures will take you beyond an ordinary visit and dive into the culture, history, cuisine, and lives of the locals at your destination.

Here are a few of the highlights you can expect from us:

Convenience: Our experience pays off. Every detail is planned and taken care of for you; all you have to do is pack your bag. The hardest part is selecting where to go next.

Educational Enrichment: All trips include educational content, with some featuring expert U-M faculty and staff traveling with your group.

Unique Explorations: Our tours are specially designed for U-M travelers, providing opportunities for spontaneous encounters and a great deal of independence wherever your journey takes you.

We invite you to explore our collection at alumni.umich.edu/travel.

Our travel team is also happy to assist you at 855.764.0064 or alumnitravel@umich.edu.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu, '08, MA'12

NOTE: The Alumni Travel program is a member benefit of the Alumni Association. Travelers, regardless of alumni status, must be a member to participate in our trips.

Bordeaux Walking Tour. Get acquainted with this dynamic wine capital on the Garonne River that brims with 18th-century architecture. See the Grand Théâtre, the Place du Parlement and the regal Porte Cailhau gate, then linger at the Miroir d'Eau, a wide reflecting pool before the handsome buildings of the Place de la Bourse. Day 4 | Saint-Émilion

Saint-Émilion. Journey into the heart of the idyllic Bordeaux wine region to this splendid medieval town surrounded by lush vineyards. The Romans first cultivated grapes here, and by the Middle Ages, the region's many small estates had thriving vineyards. Take a guided walk along Saint-Émilion's narrow lanes and then head into its impressive, underground Monolithic Church. Carved out of the limestone rock by Benedictine monks in the 12th century, it commemorates Émilion, the eighth-century monk who settled in a cave here, performed miracles and established a religious community. Relish lunch in town after your explorations.

Bordeaux Winery Visit. Draw upon your newly acquired wine knowledge as you sample fine vintages at a highly regarded winery.

Free Time: Your evening is at leisure.

Day 5 | Arcachon Bay

Arcachon Bay. This large, shallow body of water, called Le Bassin by locals, is ideal for oyster farming. On a jaunt aboard a traditional pinasse boat, soak up its picturesque beauty and landmarks such as Dune du Pilat, Europe's largest sand dune, and the cabane tchanquées, wooden cabins on stilts built by oyster farmers to watch over their farms. Finish with a tasting of fresh oysters and lunch along the shore.

Free Time: Set your own agenda in Bordeaux.

Day 6 | Bayonne | Biarritz | San Sebastián, Spain

Check out today and depart for Spain with stops in the French Basque Country.

Bayonne. France's Basque capital boasts the majestic Cathedral of Saint Mary of Bayonne, an important stop on the Way of St. James pilgrimage route during the Middle Ages. Walk through its stunning Gothic cloisters on a tour and stroll around Bayonne's historic center.

San Sebastián

Fill your glass right from the cask at a cozy Basque cider house during lunch.

Biarritz. A fashionable resort town since the 19th century, Biarritz is also regarded as one of France's great surfing spots. On a guided waterfront walk from St. Eugénie Church to the rugged rocks of Rocher de la Vierge, take in the old fishing port, the medieval watch tower and sweeping ocean views.

Cross the border into Spain and check in to the Catalonia Donosti Hotel in San Sebastián.

Day 7 | San Sebastián

San Sebastián. Called Donostia in Basque, San Sebastián became known as a resort town when Queen Isabella II chose it as her summer seaside retreat in the mid-1800s. Spanish royalty and aristocrats followed, and the city expanded with grand Belle Époque buildings. See its highlights, including the 18th-century, baroque Basílica de Santa María del Coro, on a guided walk through the buzzing old town and along the waterfront promenade by spectacular La Concha Bay.
