Dear Trojans,

Join us for this magical seven-night sojourn through the storied region of Provence, France. Unpack once and make Aix-en-Provence your home for the week as you embark on excursions throughout the Provençal countryside to explore its picturesque villages and vibrant cities.

In Aix, stroll down the enchanting Cours Mirabeau, visit Paul Cézanne's atelier and meander through the "City of a Thousand Fountains." Take in Avignon's medieval streets and travel back in time at the 14th-century Pope's Palace. And, behold the awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage site of Pont du Gard, a feat of Roman engineering.

You'll also tour Arles, brimming with Roman ruins, to see the colossal amphitheater of Les Arènes d'Arles, and witness sites that inspired many of Van Gogh's paintings. See the wonders of dazzling Marseille, France's oldest city. And, visit some of the most beautiful villages in France, including breathtaking Les Baux, romantic St. Remy, and the lovely Luberon mountain villages of Cucuron and Lourmarin.

Along the way, savor a tour and Rhône tasting in the famed wine-making village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, sample freshly made olive oils at a local olive mill, search for and indulge in fresh truffles at an organic farm, and learn to play the fun game of pétanque.

This exceptional program has been thoughtfully designed with educational enrichment from expert guides and lecturers, and it is sure to be a crowd-pleaser. For more information or to make a reservation, please call 800-323-7373 or visit usc.ahitravel.com. Space on this exclusive journey is limited; our trips often sell out before the special booking date.

ALUMNI CAMPUS
ABROAD®

Pont du Gard

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart your gateway city for Marseille, France. 🌐

Day 2 | Marseille | Aix-en-Provence

Upon arrival, transfer 🚗 and check in to the Grand Hôtel Roi René Aix-en-Provence. Then, take a brief walking tour with your Travel Director to get acquainted with the area. Meet your fellow travelers at this evening's Welcome Reception and Dinner.

Day 3 | Aix-en-Provence | Cassis & its Calanques

Aix-en-Provence & Cézanne's Studio. Set out to explore this captivating capital of Provence, your home for the week. On a guided tour, stroll beneath a canopy of plane trees along the famed Cours Mirabeau, considered one of the most beautiful boulevards in Europe. Pass by the Cathedrale Saint-Sauveur d'Aix-en-Provence and Place de l'Hôtel de Ville. See the places Paul Cézanne frequented, such as Les Deux Garçons café, and where he found inspiration when he lived here. Then, find your muse during a visit to his atelier, imagining the artist at work.

Cassis & its Calanques. Next, drive to Cassis, a quaint, sun-drenched Provençal fishing village on the Mediterranean coast, to savor a fresh seafood lunch at a local restaurant. Continue on a boat cruise through the narrow inlets of the famous Calanques of Marseille to marvel at the unique geological formations of tall needle rocks rising from brilliant blue-green waters.

Day 4 | Avignon

Palais des Papes & Avignon. Revel in the history of this UNESCO-inscribed city with a guided, fascinating visit to the Gothic Pope's Palace, a medieval masterpiece that served as the papal seat during the 14th century. Gaze in awe at its centuries-old frescoes and grand chambers, including the Pope's private apartments.

Savor lunch in colorful, enchanting Avignon.

Pont Du Gard. Continue to visit the remarkably preserved, UNESCO-inscribed Pont du Gard, built by the Romans in 19 B.C. Contemplate the awe-inspiring architectural grandeur of Roman engineering and construction mastery of this massive, three-tiered aqueduct.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Cap off the day with a scenic drive to the famed, historic wine making village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Once there, relish a guided tour and savor a tasting of the famed, full-bodied Rhône wine.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Notre Dame de la Garde, Marseille

Day 5 | Arles, Les Baux & St. Remy

Arles. Embark on a walking tour of coastal Arles, brimming with UNESCO-inscribed monuments and Roman ruins, colorful pastel houses and artistic inspiration. Marvel at the colossal amphitheater of Les Arènes and the Cathedral of St. Trôphime, a masterpiece of Romanesque style. Wander the narrow, cobblestoned streets amid medieval buildings and pass by Café Van Gogh, which inspired Van Gogh's painting, "Café Terrace at Night."

Free Time: Explore more of Arles' artistic heritage during lunch and time at leisure.

Les Baux & St. Remy. Delight in visits to two quintessentially Provençal villages. Perched on a rocky outcrop, Les Baux offers a dramatic setting amid towering limestone cliffs with breathtaking views. Romantic St. Remy charms with the lush green, perfumed valleys that inspired Van Gogh to produce more than 150 paintings. Then, at Moulin de Calanquet, tour the local olive oil mill and savor a tasting.

Farmhouse in Provence by Vincent van Gogh, 1888

Join a festive group dinner in town tonight.

Day 6 | Marseille

Marseille. This dazzling, vibrant port city on the Mediterranean coast is the oldest city in France, founded around 600 BC. On a coach and walking tour, appreciate the tapestry of diverse cultures, eclectic neighborhoods and architectural wonders. Pass by the Palais Longchamp and drive along the harbor up to Notre Dame de la Garde to take in the panoramic views. Then, absorb the city's mystery as you walk through bohemian Le Panier, the oldest district of Marseille.

Enjoy lunch and time at leisure to explore more of Marseille, perhaps by visiting the Museum of Civilizations of Europe and the Mediterranean. Savor the city's culinary offerings at leisure.

Enrichment. Splendors of Aix-en-Provence & the South of France.
