Dear Trojans,

Join us for this magical seven-night sojourn through this storied region of Provence, France. Unpack once and make Aix-en-Provence your home for the week as you embark on excursions throughout the Provençal countryside to discover its picturesque villages and historic cities and savor renowned wine and cuisine.

In Aix, stroll down the enchanting Cours Mirabeau and visit Paul Cézanne's atelier. Visit medieval Avignon to tour the 14th-century Pope's Palace and stand in awe before the Pont du Gard, a feat of Roman engineering. Enjoy a guided walk of Arles, the city that inspired Van Gogh, and visit its colossal Roman amphitheater. Spend a day in dazzling Marseille on the Mediterranean and stroll through Le Panier, its oldest district. You'll also witness some of the most beautiful villages in France, including breathtaking Les Baux-de-Provence, romantic Saint-Rémy-de-Provence and the lovely mountain village of Lourmarin.

Your journey also includes a tour and Rhône wine tasting in Châteauneuf-du-Pape, a visit to a truffle plantation and olive grove to search for fresh truffles, and an introduction to the game of pétanque!

This exceptional program has been thoughtfully designed with educational enrichment from expert guides and lecturers, and it is sure to create lasting memories. For more information or to make a reservation, please call 800-323-7373 or visit usc.ahitravel.com. Space on this exclusive journey is limited; our trips often sell out before the special booking date.

Pont du Gard

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart your gateway city for Marseille, France. 🌐

Day 2 | Marseille | Aix-en-Provence

Upon arrival, transfer 🚗 and check in to the hotel in Aix, your home for the week.

Enjoy a brief walking tour with your Travel Director to get acquainted with the area.

This evening, meet and mingle with your fellow travelers at a Welcome Reception and Dinner.

Day 3 | Aix-en-Provence | Cassis

Aix-en-Provence. Get to know this captivating capital of Provence, your home for the week.

Take a guided stroll beneath the lovely canopy of plane trees along the wide Cours Mirabeau boulevard, flanked by elegant mansions with wrought iron balconies and sculpted facades from the 17th and 18th centuries. Pass by the Cathedrale Saint-Sauveur d'Aix-en-Provence, the Place de l'Hôtel de Ville and Paul Cézanne's home. The artist was born here, returning later in life to live and establish his studio in magical Aix, where he found much inspiration.

Cassis & its Calanques. Take a scenic drive to Cassis, a cozy sun-drenched Provençal fishing village on the Mediterranean coast. Indulge in a delicious lunch at a local restaurant, then set out on a boat cruise through the narrow inlets of the Calanques of Marseille to marvel at the unique, dramatic limestone sea cliffs and the turquoise inlets that resemble fjords. Return to Cassis, stroll the town if time permits, and then enjoy a short bus ride back to the coach.

Day 4 | Avignon

Palais des Papes & Avignon. Revel in ancient history and Gothic architecture on a guided visit to the massive, medieval Pope's Palace. Tour the Old and New palaces, the papal residences for seven popes in the 14th century, when the papal court moved from Rome to Avignon. Gain insight into the palace's storied, turbulent past, and marvel at the faded, centuries-old frescoes and the Pope's Chamber, where the Pope's private apartments were located. (Active)

Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Enjoy a scenic drive to the southern Rhône valley and the famed wine-making village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Visit a winery for a tour and lunch, and savor a tasting of the classic, full-bodied Rhône wines.

Pont Du Gard. Visit the remarkably preserved Pont du Gard, a massive three-tiered aqueduct built by the Romans in 19 B.C. to carry water to Nîmes. Contemplate the Roman engineering and construction mastery as you walk across the awe-inspiring bridge and stroll around the scenic, natural surroundings on the Gard River.

Day 5 | Arles | Les Baux-de-Provence | Saint-Rémy-de-Provence

Arles. Set out on a walking tour of Arles' winding cobblestone streets, brimming with impressive monuments and ancient houses adorned with colorful shutters. Tour inside the colossal Roman Les Arènes amphitheatre, still used to stage bullfights. Stroll past the Romanesque Cathédrale Saint-Trophime and Café Van Gogh, the inspiration for his iconic "Café Terrace at Night" and other paintings.

Free Time: Find a café for lunch and uncover Arles's rich artistic heritage at your own pace.

Les Baux-de-Provence & Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. Visit two quintessentially Provençal villages. Perched atop limestone cliffs, Les Baux boasts breathtaking views, a medieval village and ancient fortress. In Saint-Rémy, gaze at the lush, perfumed valleys that inspired over 150 of Van Gogh's paintings during one of his most artistically fruitful periods.

Return to Aix for a festive group dinner tonight.

Cathédrale Saint-Trophime, Arles

Day 6 | Marseille

Marseille. This dazzling, vibrant port city on the Mediterranean coast was founded around 600 B.C. and is France's oldest city. Set out on a coach and walking tour to discover the tapestry of eclectic neighborhoods, diverse cultures and architectural wonders. See the Palais Longchamp and drive along the harbor up to Notre-Dame de la Garde to witness spectacular panoramic views. Stroll along the labyrinthine alleys and charming squares in Le Panier, Marseille's oldest district, soaking up the bohemian vibe of this multicultural hub.

Free Time: Find a café for lunch on your own and spend the remainder of the day exploring at leisure. Consider a visit to the Museum of Civilizations of Europe and the Mediterranean.

Enrichment: Splendors of Aix-en-Provence & the South of France.

Medieval streets of Les Baux
