Cetinje — The Old Capital. Known as the country's capital between 1878 and 1946, Cetinje is a living time capsule with impressive architecture, galleries, art academies and museums that reveal cultural and historical insights into Montenegro. Take a guided tour of the National Museum of Montenegro, housed throughout five historic buildings. Sit down to a lunch of regional cuisine at a country-style restaurant.

Day 4 | Bay of Kotor | Perast | Kotor

Bay of Kotor. This awe-inspiring scene was not carved by glaciers. Instead, the strikingly beautiful bay is a ria, or a submerged river valley that was created by rising sea levels. Revel in jaw-dropping hills, plummeting cliffs and indigo waters during a private cruise to Our Lady of the Rocks, a man-made island. Along the way, learn about the island's legend and tour its baroque-style church. Continue to medieval Perast, a charming lakefront town with a storied seafaring history. The jumble of alleys showcases 16 churches as well as defensive towers and monuments.

In nearby Kotor, admire the Old Town encircled by miles of fortifications. Take time to linger along cobbled lanes that give way to shaded squares, historic churches and restaurants.

Day 5 | Lake Skadar | Tuzi

Lake Skadar. Travel through a lush mountain landscape to the largest freshwater lake in the Balkans, perched on the Montenegrin and Albanian border. The lake and its surrounds are a pristine wonderland peppered with sleepy villages and the remains of ancient monasteries, monuments and churches. During a boat tour, admire the lake's flora and fauna, glide through lily pads and learn about the area's ecosystem and endemic species, including otters, dragonflies and over 270 species of birds.

Enjoy a group lunch during your outing.

Insight into Montenegro's Monasteries & Budva. Over 50 monasteries are sprinkled throughout Montenegro, each with significant historical and cultural treasures. Visit two monasteries today — the medieval Serbian Orthodox Reževići Monastery and the thousand-year-old Praskvica Monastery. Located in an olive grove, the UNESCO-protected Monastery of Reževići overlooks the sea and is comprised of two churches. Continue to Budva, a coastal town enclosed within medieval citadel walls. During a guided walk, witness the narrow streets lined with charming shops, bars, churches and eateries. Take note of the 14th-century Saint Sava Church and the pink-and-white stone Church of the Holy Trinity. These handsome churches tell stories of the different peoples that have passed through Budva.

Kotor by Night. After sunset, the streetlights cast a soft, romantic glow on Kotor's meandering lanes and honey-hued buildings. Enjoy the tranquil ambience at your own pace and find a special spot for dinner.

Day 7 | Tivat | Dubrovnik, Croatia

After breakfast, drive to Dubrovnik, Croatia, and check in to your hotel.

Darling Dubrovnik. Discover the highlights of Dubrovnik during a walking tour. Admire the 14th-century Franciscan Monastery's Romanesque cloister and visit its small
