A World of Discovery

Antwerp Walking Tour. This fascinating Belgian city, located near the North Sea on the Scheldt River, has long been an important seaport and center of trade. Follow your guide to view the old town's wealth of medieval architecture. See the Renaissance town hall and the stately row of guild halls in Grote Markt square as well as the Gothic Cathedral of Our Lady that soars over the skyline.

Canals of Amsterdam. Board a cruiser for a delightful perspective of this beguiling city, renowned for its more than 60 miles of tree-lined canals. Amsterdam's historic canal belt around the old city, known as Grachtengordel in Dutch, was dug largely in the 17th century during a period of expansive growth. On your guided cruise, take in the narrow, gabled canal houses, locals of all ages pedaling by, and the architectural gems of the bustling harbor.

Keukenhof Gardens. Journey to this paradise of 7 million spring-flowering bulbs, including brightly colored tulips, hyacinths, daffodils and other gorgeous blooms. More than nine miles of footpaths crisscross the grounds, allowing you to immerse yourself in this enchanting setting. Explore this magnificent garden with your guide and learn more about its origins.
